

American Society for Public Administration

The Kern County Chapter of ASPA
Announces the Annual

ASPA Student Essay Competition

“Based on current projections, spending on corrections and rehabilitation will pass spending on higher education in the California budget within five years. Is this shift in priorities good or bad for the state of California?”

800 words – Maximum.

Participants must be currently enrolled in a college or university in Kern County.

Open to students in Public Administration, Political Science, Criminal Justice, and related fields. Open to both undergraduate and graduate students.

Three prizes of $250 each
Deadline: Friday, March 27, 2009

Send MS-Word or PDF file to kernaspa@gmail.com; in e-mail message, provide your full name, major, the name of college or university that you are currently enrolled in, and a contact phone number.

Winners will be announced in the second week of April

Questions? Please contact Dr. Steven Daniels at rdaniels@csu.edu

...advancing excellence in public service